

Urban Forest Tree Keeper

Urban Forest Tree Keeper is a course in trees and urban forestry by Trees For Houston. It teaches basic tree identification, planting techniques, site suitability and other care. The course also covers the environmental importance of trees in a city. It is a resource of trained volunteers for people throughout the greater Houston community.

Time Class I: Monday, October 18, 2010 from 6-8pm

& Place: Class II: Wednesday, October 20, 2010 from 6-8pm

Greater Houston Community Foundation's Community Room
Kanaly Trust Building
4550 Post Oak Place Drive, Suite 100, Houston, Texas 77027

Tree ID Course and Planting: Saturday, October 23, 2010 from 1-5pm at the Houston Arboretum

Topics: Tree Structure & Physiology, Identification of Species, Site and Species Selection, Tree Benefits in our Urban Environment, and Proper Tree Planting.

Cost: $15, includes all classes and t-shirt

Registration: Please use the registration form at the bottom

Mail: Trees For Houston, 4550 Post Oak Place Drive, Suite 310, Houston, Texas 77027

Fax: (713) 840-8734

Call: (713) 840-8733

E-mail: randi@treesforhouston.org

Web: www.treesforhouston.org

Registration for October 2010

Name

Address Apartment City State Zipcode

(____) _____
Phone

Email

We Thank

Our speakers who donate their time & knowledge

GREATER HOUSTON
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
Smart giving. Better results.